

Copyright Regulation in Europe – An Enabling or Disabling Factor for Science Communication

Urheberrechtsregulierung als Ermöglichungs- bzw. als
Verhinderungsfaktor für Wissenschaftskommunikation

European Workshop

Program

Nov. 14-15, 2008

Location: Heinrich-Böll-Foundation, Schumannstr. 8, Berlin-Mitte,
Germany

Thursday – Nov. 13, 2008

Time	Social Event	Location
21:00 – 22:30	Chimney talk : Jerzy Montag, MP, spokesman for law politics, BÜNDNIS 90/DIE GRÜNEN (Green Party) in the German Parliament	Heinrich-Böll-Foundation

Friday - Nov. 14, 2008

Time	Speaker	Topic
9:00 – 9:15	Ralf Fücks, Andreas Poltermann, Heinrich-Böll-Foundation	Welcome addresses, Introduction to the conference
9:15 – 9:30	All participants	Introduction
Session 1: Copyright and science – Demands and objectives Moderation: Rainer Kuhlen
9:30 – 10:30	Rainer Kuhlen, University of Konstanz (Germany)	Copyright and science – Demands and objectives
10:30 – 11:00	Panel discussion: Rainer Kuhlen, Gerhard Fröhlich, Stuart Taylor, The Royal Society (United Kingdom), Florin Filip, Academy of Romania (Romania), Agnès Ponsati, CSIC Library Network, Spanish National Research Council (Spain)
11:00 – 11:30	Coffee break

Session 2: Exceptions and limitations or a copyright blanket clause for science
Moderation: Wolf-Dieter Sepp
11:30 – 12:00	Lucie Guibault, University of Amsterdam (Netherlands)	A framework for an obligatory system of exceptions and limitations
12:00 – 12:30	Séverine Dusollier, University of Namur (Belgium)	A systematic approach to exceptions in the European Union
12:30 – 13:00	Panel discussion: Lucie Guibault, Séverine Dusollier, María J. Iglesias, University of Namur (Belgium), Jaak Järv, Estonian Academy of Sciences (Estonia), Benjamin Bajon, Max-Planck-Institut für Geistiges Eigentum, Wettbewerbs- und Steuerrecht (Germany)
13:00 – 14:00	Lunch
Session 3: Open Access – An alternative to or a replacement for copyright
Moderation: Lucie Guibault
14:00 – 14:30	Stevan Harnad, University of Southampton (United Kingdom) (via teleconference)	Copyright Reform Should Not Be Made A Precondition For Mandating Open Access
14:30 – 15:00	Hélène Bosc, Open Access Working group of Euroscience (France)	Open access to the scientific literature: a peer commons open to the public
15:00 – 15:30	Panel discussion: Stevan Harnad, Hélène Bosc, Rainer Kuhlen, Jiří Rákosník, Academy of Sciences of the Czech Republic (Czech Republic), Jaak Järv, Estonian Academy of Sciences (Estonia)
15:30 – 16:00	Coffee break – Tea time
Session 4: The Green Paper “Copyright in the Knowledge Economy”
Moderation: Gerald Spindler, University of Göttingen (Germany)
16:00 – 16:30	Rainer Kuhlen, Information Science, University of Konstanz (Germany)	Introduction into the Green Paper
16:30 – 18:00	Workshop: The Green Paper “Copyright in the Knowledge Economy”; elaboration of a common statement
19:00	Informal meeting in a local restaurant

Saturday – Nov 15, 2008

Time	Speaker	Topic
Session 5: Science communication and collaboration
Moderation: Michael Seadle, Institute for Library and Information Science, HU Berlin
9:30 – 10:00	Paul Ayris (UK), UNICA Scholarly Communications Group	The future of scholarly publication
10:00 – 10:30	Panel discussion: Paul Ayris, Ágnes Téglási, Hungarian Academy of Sciences (Hungary), Rosa Nyárády, UNESCO chair in communication (Hungary), Ján Bakoš, Slovak Academy of Sciences (Slovakia)
10:30 – 11:00	Coffee break

Session 6: Founding of the ENCES network: European Network for Copyright in support of Education and Science

Moderation: Rainer Kuhlen, University of Konstanz (Germany)

11:00 – 12:00	Workshop: The Green Paper “Copyright in the Knowledge Economy”; common statement and forming of ENCES (= European Network for Copyright in support of Education and Science)
12:00 – 13:00	Lunch

Time	Social Event	Location
13:30 – 15:00	Guided tour	CERN exposition “World Machine”
15:00 – 17:30	Sightseeing tour	Scheunenviertel (Barn Quarter), Central Berlin